Thought For The Month

An honest politician is one who when he is bought will stay bought. ☺

SEPTEMBER SPEAKER

The chapter's September speaker will be the distinguished Lt. Col. Roger Dong, USAF-Ret, a China specialist with extensive military and civilian experience in Asia. His chosen title is: China – The Threat and the Challenge

Most analysts characterize present Sino-American relations as being complex and multifaceted. The United States and the People's Republic of China are usually neither allies nor enemies; the U.S. government and military establishment do not regard the Chinese as an adversary, but as a competitor in some areas and a partner in others.

Relations between the People's Republic of China and the United States have been generally stable with some periods of tension, most notably after the breakup of the Soviet Union, which removed a common enemy and ushered in a world characterized by American dominance. There are also special concerns relating to human rights in the People's Republic of China and the political status of Taiwan.

While there are some tensions in Sino-American relations, there are also many stabilizing factors. The PRC and the United States are major trade partners and have common interests in the prevention and suppression of terrorism and nuclear proliferation. China and the US are the largest mutual trading partners, excluding the European Union. China is also the largest foreign creditor for the United States. China's challenges and difficulties are mainly internal, and there is a desire to maintain stable relations with the United States. The Sino-American relationship has been described by top leaders and academics as the world's most important bilateral relationship of the 21st century.

Colonel Dong began his 32-year active duty and reserve military career after graduating from San Francisco State University with a BA in psychology and Chinese Studies as well as being named an ROTC Distinguished Military Graduate. Later he earned the MA in Chinese and Japanese Studies at University of Arizona. In the Air Force he served in intelligence, counter-intelligence, law enforcement, and as a Chinese language program director and instructor. He served four Reserve Air Attaché tours at the U.S. Consulate General in Hong Kong, and later as a civilian served as a Defense Attaché in Taiwan. In his civilian career, initially with IBM, he has run three companies, commanded three military organizations, and headed six non-profit organizations. Today in retirement he is a tireless supporter of the extended military community. ☺

INTRODUCING

Chaplain Fred Tittle serves as the chapter's chaplain, meeting the needs of chapter members by assisting in times of trouble, responding to emergencies, and offering advice and counsel. Fred is often present at board meetings and general membership luncheon meetings to offer the invocation and benediction as well as provide details of special needs within the military community.

In April 2011 he was installed as an honorary member of Silicon Valley Chapter. A retired U. S. Marine, he served in Vietnam, Japan, Subic Bay, Panama, and Guatemala City.

He currently resides and works as a volunteer along with his wife, Jeanie, at Moffett Field where he assisted in creating transitional housing for injured OIF/OEF veterans leaving the military and VA hospitals.

Chaplain Tittle holds an undergraduate degree from Michigan State University and earned a graduate degree from Princeton Theological Seminary. ☞

SPORTS IN IRAN

Note: Chapter auxiliary Mrs. Lynn Prescott offers memories of when she accompanied her husband MAJ Dana Prescott, USA, a military attaché, to Iran in 1948-51. Edited for Space.

*A*s the Gendarmerie and Army Mission office hours were 7:00 am to 1:00 pm summers and 8:00 am to 2:00 pm winters, there was ample time for sports and I was married to a man who was enthusiastic about any and all of them. Afternoons were not to be wasted with the customary siesta, so while most of Tehran slept, Dana, mad dogs, and Englishmen were out in the noonday sun—dragging me along. I was wiry and strong and had always thought of myself as athletic, but had never really played many games.

Tennis was Dana's best game and he never gave up trying to make a tennis player out of me. We often swam in the big pool at the Big House, but when I did my laps I would sink like a rock if I didn't swim as hard as I could. Now sunbathing—that was something I was really good at.

While I was never able to learn to really whack a golf ball, at least my ineptitude didn't especially need to bother anyone else's game. There was a golf course the English had built on some barren land not far out of town. When you pulled up to the little shanty that was the "clubhouse," ragged little boys clambered all over you begging to be your caddy, so after a time the club officers hired a scruffy man to be sort of a caddy master to keep the boys in line, literally. He drew a line in the dust and they were supposed to toe the line while the golfers chose their caddies.

As we pulled up one morning in the jeep the caddy master had one little boy by the scruff of the neck and was beating him about the head with a club. Here I went again. I jumped out of the jeep, rushed up to the caddy master and knocked him to the ground with a very credible uppercut. He got up and went crying to Dana who was rushing up to extricate me again. No golf that day. Dana grabbed me and stuffed me back in the jeep and we left in a cloud of dust. I guess I caused the guy to lose his job because we never saw him again.

The golf course was flat. It was hot. It was dusty. It was devoid of all vegetation except thistles and scrub brush. The rocks had been hauled to the sides making rocky roughs and all scrub vegetation cleared from the dusty "fairways." After a rain the fairway was packed down hard, so if you were able simply to hit the ball straight, it would roll and roll as if you were driving your ball down the highway. Sometimes we would have to wait as a boy led his flock of sheep across the fairway.

Once a year there was a big golf dance and the winners of the year's contests were announced and silver trophies and loving cups awarded. The ballroom was upstairs and two sides were lined with windows that reached from ceiling to floor. At one of the dances all of the trophies to be awarded were displayed on a card table in front of those windows. Dana and I came swinging by in a lilting waltz and my full skirted evening dress swung out against the card table. Up it went in slow motion and all the trophies slid out the window and bounced on the stone patio one floor below. After the bent and scratched trophies were retrieved and awarded, Dana and I shamefacedly gathered them up and took them down to a silversmith the

OBITUARIES

BILL DEMERS

CAPT, USA (RET)

With the May 7th passing of William George DeMers, the chapter lost a distinguished member. A regular at monthly luncheon meetings as long as his schedule and health allowed, it was clear he had many friends and admirers and was respected across all age groups. His dedication to the chapter was as evident as his never-ending sense of humor and determination to weather life's ups and downs. A resident of Mt. View, he was 96.

Some years ago a description of Bill's experiences on New Guinea appeared in a Bulletin article. In 1936 he joined the Wisconsin National Guard and later during WWII served with the Army's 32nd Infantry Division where he advanced to the grade of captain and served as a company commander. The battles were rugged and desperate, a time when Bill lost some of his soldiers and close friends in other units. He was wounded in action and evacuated by black natives, the Fuzzy Wuzzy, the name given by Australian troops to a group of Papua New Guinean people who assisted and escorted injured troops down the Kokoda trail. He was awarded the Purple Heart and Bronze Star.

Bill was born in Rice Lake, Wisconsin, married an army nurse, and had a 23-year career with the U.S. Post Office serving in later years as Supervisor of Postal Services, participated with many military organizations, and worked to enrich the lives of the people around him. He would say, jokingly, "I don't want to see you at my funeral." Today he sees us, unless he's watching the San Francisco Giants. Rest well, good friend. Be thou at peace. ☺

ROBERT G. SMITH

CDR, USN (RET)

In 1927 Charles A. Lindbergh flew his sleek silver-gray monoplane 3600 miles from New York to Paris. It was the year the Dumbarton Bridge opened, carrying the first automobile traffic across San Francisco Bay. And in that year CDR Robert G. Smith, USN (RET) was born in Redding, California.

Bob passed away peacefully late in the evening of June 30th. He was a remarkable man, quiet and unassuming, who served the chapter for many years, both as an officer and director. His most recent role was chapter Secretary.

In 1945 Bob left home and joined the Navy, and after the war attended the University of Idaho, graduating in 1951 with the BSCE and a commission as Ensign, USN. After three years aboard the USS Maddox and three trips to the Western Pacific, he went to Groton, Connecticut for submarine training. It was there he met and married Frances Mae Ricci; they were married more than 50 years. When he retired in 1971 the family relocated to San Jose and Bob took a position with Lockheed Missiles and Space Company from which he retired in 1989. Bob always said his best job was skipper of a diesel submarine.

Bob and Fran were interested in international travel and over time visited seven continents.

Bob had many friends and he will be loved and missed by those fortunate enough to have known him. Well done, Bob. Be thou at peace. ☺

JOACHIM SPECIALE

LTC, USA (RET)

A distinguished Army officer and chapter member has died in San Jose after a brief illness.

LTC Joachim J. (Joe) Speciale, USA (RET), was born in San Jose's old O'Connor Hospital in 1918, graduated from Bellarmine College Preparatory and in 1939 received a baccalaureate degree from Santa Clara University. He was the youngest man to become an ROTC officer at that time.

Upon graduation he was commissioned in the U.S. Army as an artillery officer and stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco and Fort Ord before WWII, then later assigned to the "Pineapple Pentagon" in Honolulu after the 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor. During Joe's career of 20 years with the 6th United States Army, he and his family lived in Washington, D.C., Germany, San Francisco, and Virginia. He also worked at the National War College and the Pentagon in logistics, mostly on major projects in the 1950's to maintain a well-prepared military. One of his later assignments was to nuclear guided missile project development, the intent of which was to deter a possible WWII based on the experiences of 1941.

Joe completed a law degree while on active duty and after retiring in 1962 returned home to San Jose, working for the County of Santa Clara for many years and retiring as Clerk of the Court of Santa Clara County. Well done good and faithful servant. Be thou at peace. ☺

CADET THANK YOU

Cadet Colonel Ragan Bansal, Commander, San Jose State University Air Force ROTC 45th Cadet Wing, sent the following letter following his receipt of the chapter's 2011 $1,000 scholarship.

“I would like to thank chapter members for the scholarship. This will greatly help in allowing me to pursue my academics without the worry of financial burdens. I would also like to thank you for the invitation to the luncheon; it was a great opportunity to meet and talk with veterans, and gain a better perspective on active duty.

“The scholarships your organization provides to college students pursuing military careers go a long way in ensuring that students are provided the ability to focus on academics, while not worrying about how they will meet financial requirements. In my case, I am a commuter student, so a great deal of my income is devoted to transportation costs. This gives me the opportunity to spend my time on my studies.

“MOAA not only gave me a better understanding of the type of networking connections one receives as an officer in the military, but it also helped set me up for academic success in the future. With this opportunity, I have a better understanding of what to expect on active duty and the positive effects of scholarship opportunities. I would like to thank you again for this amazing opportunity, and for giving me a better perspective on active duty life.

“Thank you for your continued support of Detachment 045 cadets.” ☺

AFROTC

The chapter provided a $500 donation check to Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps (AFROTC), Detachment 045, San Jose State University, in support of a very special term-end event, and the detachment commander Lt. Col. Rick G. Moxley, USAF, sent the following letter of appreciation.

“I want to personally thank you for your contributions to Detachment 045. Your grant funding was extremely generous and very timely in its delivery. With it, we were able to execute one of the best Combat Dining-Ins that this unit has seen. This event provided an avenue for team building, esprit de corps, and camaraderie between the cadre and the cadets. We even had the rare pleasure of one of your members, CAPT Paul Barrish, as our guest speaker for the event. I cannot thank you enough for your continued support, not just this year but in past years as well.

Detachment 045 hopes to continue this event for many years to come. We appreciate your support and look forward to working with you in the future.” ☺

Lt Col Moxley

ID CARD CHANGE

The Moffett Field ID card office has been moved to the new U.S. Army Reserve Center, 230 RT Jones Road, Mt. View, CA 94043-1809. The office can be reached by making the left hand turn from the 4-way stop immediately prior to the Moffett Field main gate. The building is one half mile down the road on the left.

It will be necessary to make an advance appointment for entry to the building and obtaining the new card. Appointments can be made by telephone at (650) 526-9891 or (650) 526-9517 or on-line at <http://appointments.cac.navy.mil>, probably the best way to do it. ☺

TRICARE & MEDICARE

TRICARE and Medicare are separate programs. Medicare is health insurance for people age 65 or older, as well as for people under age 65 who have qualified for Social Security disability insurance.

TRICARE For Life is TRICARE's Medicare-wraparound coverage available to all Medicare-eligible TRICARE beneficiaries, regardless of age or place of residence, provided they have Medicare Parts A and B. There is no paperwork associated with TFL. Beneficiaries automatically gain coverage when they meet the requirements.

Beneficiaries must sign up for Medicare as soon as they become eligible to ensure that they continue to get benefits under TRICARE.

Beneficiaries turning 65 receive reminder letters from the Defense Manpower Data Center. For more information regarding Medicare sign-up, beneficiaries can call at 800-633-4227 or go to www.medicare.gov.

Beneficiaries are ineligible for TRICARE benefits for any period of time that they have Medicare Part A but not Part B, with several exceptions. For information on these exceptions, beneficiaries can go to www.tricare.mil/factsheets/Medicare or talk with their regional health care contractor.

While Medicare is the primary insurance when a beneficiary turns 65, TRICARE acts as the secondary insurance, minimizing out-of-pocket expenses. TRICARE covers Medicare's co-insurance and deductible. After Medicare pays its part of the claim, TRICARE pays the remaining amount for any TRICARE covered services and the beneficiary pays nothing. As the primary payer, Medicare approves health care services for payment.

If a beneficiary has other health insurance, Medicare forwards their claim to that company. The beneficiary must then file a paper claim with their TRICARE contractor. If the beneficiary has employer group health plan coverage based on current employment, the employer group pays first, Medicare pays second and TRICARE pays last.

Medicare does not provide coverage outside of the United States and U.S. territories (American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands). TRICARE is the primary payer for health care received overseas (except U.S. territories), unless the beneficiary has other health insurance. Overseas, TFL provides the same coverage as TRICARE Standard and has the same cost-shares and deductibles. When seeking care from a host-nation provider, beneficiaries should be prepared to pay up front for services and submit a claim to the overseas claims processor.

Beneficiaries who have further questions about TRICARE and Medicare coverage can go to www.tricare.mil, or call Wisconsin Physicians Service at 866-773-0404. ☎

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is seeking candidates to fill two director vacancies with service to begin in early October.

General: The board includes the elected officers, elected directors, and the immediate past president. The chapter requires at least five but not more than eleven directors. Directors are elected annually and serve for a term of one year or until a successor has been elected or appointed. The board meets the 1st Thursday of the month at a 129th Rescue Wing facility, Moffett Field, from 10:00am until about 11:30am, with some members choosing to have lunch together.

Duties: The bylaws Article VII, Section 2, states that the Board of Directors shall:

1. Supervise the business of SVC MOAA;

2. Be responsible for proper management of funds and property;

3. Fill any Board of Director vacancies;

4. Perform all duties required by law and by tradition of a Board of Directors.

In short, board members are responsible for managing the chapter's business. The primary role of directors is to offer counsel and advice to the officers. Although there will be plenty of opportunities for service, the only real time commitment is the monthly board meeting.

Rewards: Serving as a director offers a chance to help define the chapter's future and to make a difference. Most directors look on meetings as a social time of camaraderie, good conversation, achievement, personal satisfaction, and a good time.

Members who are interested in service as a director, or who would like to nominate others, contact Lt. Col. Jay Craddock, president, in Los Altos, telephone (650) 968-0446 or e-mail b25jay@sbcglobal.net. ☎
